Rochester, N.Y.
E. B. L. May 25th

My dear Aunt Anne,
Word has
come from Mother
to-day, of the sad
death of Miss Manning - and I want to send you a word of sympathy. There is so little we can

a little over the rough places.

Your friendship with
dear Miss Manning
has been of such long standing, and of such a close nature, that the loss will be a hard one.

And all
who came in contact with her sweet and
gentle nature, will feel it too, and will miss her influence.

Each good soul we have known adds to our store of blessings, and we can be grateful, even in the shadow.

Very lovingly yours
Emily Beets Loomis.

Say at such a time,
for after all, the way we take. These great losses is
the result of our own attitude
toward life, - the growth of many years: and all
the friends can do
is to sympathize
deeply, and so help
